

would pay up to two-thirds of the net project cost (cost of acquisition, clearance and installation of community facilities less resale credit). All or part of the City's one-third share of net project cost could be in the form of local and State government improvements installed in the project area.